

Ramón Eluchans Olivares

- » Mr. Eluchans is Member of the Board of Banco Security since 2013.
- » Between 1997 and 2013, , Eluchans was the CEO of Banco Security, during which time he has lead the institution through a development process through acquisitions and organic growth. Banco Security is today a leading bank characterized by its low risk, high credit standards, service levels above the general average and excellent brand recognition.
- » Prior to his current position, Mr. Eluchans was the Chief Marketing and Commercial Officer of Banco Security during its development and growth process.
- » Before joining Banco Security, Mr. Eluchans had a similar position in Banco Sudamericano (currently Scotia Bank).
- » During his tenure at Banco Security, Mr. Eluchans has participated in board member positions at Property and Casualty, Travel and Brokerage units. He also is an active member at the credit, finance and operations committee.
- » In his personal endeavors, Mr. Eluchans is the Chairman of the Santiago (Chile) Runners Club, Chairman of the Oceanic Sail Club (Chile) and he obtained the national Chilean Champion of blue water oceanic sail.
- » Mr. Eluchans has a Bachelor Degree in Business Administration from the Catholic University of Chile. His native language is Spanish and is fluent in English. He is married and has 3 children.